But Satan Does Not Promise Them Except Delusion

Shaytan tricks and deludes his allies to what harms them in this life and the hereafter, fills their minds with vague unrealistic hopes to make them more obedient to him by accepting his whispers or through believing in what he dictates to the leaders leader of evil who call others to the gates of hellfire, which portray in different forms, sometimes by fooling others to think they have wisdom, leading people astray by claiming that being steadfast on this Deen brings nothing but disasters and losses, while all good is in disobeying Allah.

Another way which Shaytan tricks people is through the tongues of the scholars of evil, the callers to fitna who distort the reality of the Deen of Allah, by preaching that the only road to Jannah and only protection from hellfire is in obeying Shaytan and disobeying Allah.

Allah has warned us from obeying Shaytan in any aspect by saying: "And whoever takes Shaytan as an ally instead of Allah has certainly sustained a clear loss. Shaytan promises them and arouses desire in them. But Shaytan does not promise them except delusion" (Al-Nisa'a: 120-119).

The majority of those who follow Shaytan attach themselves to the false promises which Shaytan promises them, instead of accepting the clear guidance which was revealed by Allah to his prophets peace be upon them. They put so much value in these false promises then adopt them as a "religion" which they live by, ally those who adopt it while showing animosity to those who don't.

And just when they start to realize that the promises of Shaytan were nothing but delusion, they hurry in seeking for different false hopes from Shaytan in order to fool their followers into following them. Its very seeking unusual of them to wake up from their delusion since they've gotten accustomed to live by Satanic mirage which is easier on their desires to follow when compared to the difficulty they find when obeying their Creator Allah says: But those who disbelieved - their deeds are like a mirage in a lowland which a thirsty one thinks is water until, when he comes to it, he finds it is nothing but finds Allah before Him, and He will pay him in full his due; and Allah is swift in account " (Al-Noor: 39).

If we closely look at the way the deviated groups, the factions of apostasy and misguidance who consider themselves Muslims, we see that the main reason behind them going astray is because of falling victims to the traps of the illusions and false hopes of Shaytan.

The mushrikin who adopted the shirk of democracy were fooled by Shaytan and his allies into thinking that associating partners with Allah in legislating laws and electing tawaghit who rule by other than what Allah has revealed is a righteous act of worship which pleases Allah and that such acts will strengthen Islam and make it victorious, while the reality of their situation shows otherwise, they have been have been drowning and sinking in the filth if democracy for almost a century, leaving the fold of Islam in crowds without achieving anything in return from their aim, and they will realize in the hereafter that the promises of their leaders were nothing but false hopes and whispers of Shaytan, Allah says: "And Shaytan will say when the matter has been concluded, 'Indeed, Allah had promised you the promise of truth. And I promised you, but I betrayed you. But I had no authority over you except that I invited you, and you responded to me. So do not blame me; but blame yourselves. I cannot be called to your aid, nor can you be called to my aid. Indeed, I deny your association of me [with Allah] before. Indeed, for the wrongdoers is a painful unishment'" (Ibrahim: 22).

Likewise is the situation of the factions and organizations which claim to be fighting for the sake of Allah, Shaytan has tricked them through his allies from their leaders that victory against the tawaghit and crusaders cannot be achieved without staining their Jihad with Shirk, innovations, and allying with the Kuffar against the Muslims, he fools them that these are prerequisites on his path while expecting to be rewarded with the highest ranks in the hereafter. Not shortly after, they start playing around with labels, labeling themselves as nationalist rebels or freedom fighters instead of mujahidin, and that their fight aims for nothing more than protecting and freeing their "countries", attempting to please the tawaghit and the crusaders attempting to gain their sympathy. Shaytan then gradually drags them towards allying with the Kuffar and apostates upon agreeing on common goals, not long after, they start fighting Islam and Muslims under their banners then publicly declare war on those who fight to make the word of Allah supreme labelling them extremists, Khawarij hijackers of jihad, and agents of the crusaders!

They do all that thinking that staining themselves with kufr makes them more appealing and deserving to be supported by them, they do all that while hoping that Allah would forgive the kufr which they fell in or deluded in expecting to be rewarded in the hereafter for such crimes!

The fate which awaits such people is being fooled by the kuffar into gradually sacrificing their Deen until they think that they earned and deserved their approval, the bitter reality shocks them realizing that the tawaghit no longer need them since their role has finished, they no longer find any benefit in supporting them, That's the moment when their defects are clear for everyone to see causing them to lose their audience and failing to recruit them within their ranks after being abandoned by the tawaghit who then appoint someone worse than them to rule over them to annihilate their existence. And prevent them from what they were best at, using their names and titles to fool the ignorant and naive to join them. And Allah does not guide the plots of the traitors.

This happened to many groups in different areas and times throughout this century, many allies of Shaytan faced similar fates, dead ends and disappointments, and Allah does not guide the plots of the wrong-doers.

The guided followers of the truth hold from on the book of Allah and the teachings of his messengers PBUH while implementing them. Believing the promise of Allah, expecting to get tested in order to achieve victory for this Deen in this world and the best rewards in the hereafter.
They walk with steady, firm steps not bothering about the distractions and obstacles along their path, awaiting one of the best two outcomes, being victorious in this life or earing a high status in the hereafter. And Allah guides Whom He wishes to the straight path.
